OGDEN LOSES THIRD GAME

God of Luck Again Favors the McCloskey Bunch—Pounce Upon Knight For 13 Hits—Murray and Knight Get Home Runs

Ogden dropped the third game to Salt Lake yesterday by the score of 5 to 3. Although the score would not indicate it, Ogden played in such good form that it was expected by the fans that a strong rally in the eighth or ninth inning would win the game. Ogden, however, could not get its batting eye adjusted to the slants that Castleton sent over the plate.

Knight pitched a good game for Ogden, but nevertheless he was slammed for 13 safeties. He struck out four of the skyscrapers and had such good control that not one man received first base as a gift.

Considering the game as a whole, Ogden did not lose it, but Salt Lake won it.

For three fast innings neither side scored. In the fourth, though, after Ogden had been retired neatly and quickly without a point, Murphy sent a hot one down to Wessler which that gentleman handled in a wobbly manner, permitting Murphy to remain safe on the first corner. Huelsman, the big fellow, then got busy and struck so hard at a ball coming down the alley that it sailed over Murray's head before the center fielder could get started after it. That little thing scored Murphy and put the Hippo on third. Thereupon Pendleton bunted and Huelsman scored while Pen reached first in safety. After that it was one, two, three for the inning.

The score was tied up in Ogden's share of the next round. Risberg put his activity into play and beat out a bunt to first. Moorehead walked and Woolsms flew out. When Pourroy was walked, the bases were filled. Knight then swatted to Davis who threw home, cutting off Risberg. McClain, catching, had an easy double, but in throwing to first he cracked Knight on the dome and the ball rolled to the bleachers, giving Pourroy and Moorehead one tally each.

"I should be annoyed," said McCloskey in his half of the inning and Salt Lake scored five runs. These tallies were secured by singles from Murphy and Dressan, a double by Spencer and a triple by Pendleton, coupled with two highly successful wobbles by Jones and Risberg. Pendleton had the luck to get in his triple just when the bases were full.

In the sixth our old friend Murray clouted the ball over the back yard fence and romped around the bases for a home run. In the seventh there was still additional excitement. Woolsms perched on second after a clean double and then Knight swung hard for the second home run.

The two runs by Salt Lake in the inning were secured in the same way. Murphy hit a clean double and then Huelsman hit one for a home run.

Salt Lake and Ogden are scheduled for two games today. One began at 10:30 o'clock and the other will begin at 3. Sinclair and Ballinger are the twirlers of the day.
